The Burns Paiute Tribal Police Department and members of the community have expressed a number of concerns regarding children riding bicycles without a helmet. The Police Department will begin to enforce bike helmet violations. We ask all Tribal members to support the effort of protecting our children from any injury or death.

It is a $ 25.00 dollar fine if a child is not wearing a helmet. A child under the age of 16 is required to wear an approved helmet if operating a bike on property open to the public. If the child is 11 and under, the citation will be issued to the parents or guardian. If the child is 12 to 15, the citation will be issued to the child.

Below we have attached the helmet law.

Thanks for your support.

Burns Paiute Tribal Police.

2017 ORS 814.485¹

Failure to wear protective headgear

(1)A person commits the offense of failure of a bicycle operator or rider to wear protective headgear if the person is under 16 years of age, operates or rides on a bicycle on a highway or on premises open to the public and is not wearing protective headgear of a type approved under ORS 815.052 (Rules establishing standards for protective headgear).

(2)Exemptions from this section are as provided in ORS 814.487 (Exemptions from protective headgear requirements).

(3)The offense described in this section, failure of a bicycle operator or rider to wear protective headgear, is a specific fine traffic violation. The presumptive fine for failure of a bicycle operator or rider to wear protective headgear is $25. [1993 c.408 §2; 1995 c.581 §1; 2011 c.597 §103]

USRT “FOCUSSS on Tribal Resilience Curriculum & Project

The FOCUSSS on Tribal Resilience project will support native youth in their participation in natural resource management issues, workforce development, and community engagement between youth, school, family, and community.

“FOCUSSS” stands for Families, Organizations & Communities, Understanding Science, Sustainability, & Service.

The Burns Paiute Tribal Programs (Natural Resources, Prevention, and Education) are inviting all Tribal Youth to participate in Upper Snake River Tribe’s Tribal Resilience Curriculum/ Project. The curriculum will explain issues related to resilience of natural and cultural resources, climate change monitoring and education, measuring and reducing household consumption of energy, water, and consumables. Climate Change Curriculum will be held at Tu-wa-kii Nobi. Elementary students will be taught on Fridays at 1:00 pm. Middle and High School students will be taught on Sundays at 3:00 pm. At this time, there will be 11 lessons that will be taught. Upper Snake River Tribes are Burns-Paiute Tribe, Fort McDermitt Paiute-Shoshone Tribe, Shoshone-Bannock Tribes of the Fort Hall Reservation, Shoshone-Paiute Tribes of the Duck Valley Reservation. All four tribes will begin teaching the same Climate Change Curriculum that USRT developed for elementary and secondary students.

Start date for Elementary students:
Friday November 1, 2019
1:00 p.m.
Tu-wa-kii Nobi

Start date for Secondary (Middle and High School students):
Sunday November 3, 2019
3:00 p.m.
Tu-wa-kii Nobi

Continuing through June 2020, the USRT “FOCUSS on Tribal Resilience” grant will support activities such as:

- Summer Break 2020 Youth Tour funding to bring youth together across the four USRT tribes to share and learn cultural and natural resource knowledge.
- Community Resilience Project funding to bring youth program efforts into full realization of an environmental community resilience project. Examples of resilience projects might include fighting invasive species, weatherizing homes for the elderly, advocacy to fight pollution, community recycling programs, streambank restoration, etc.... Ultimately, the community Resilience Project will be decided by the students.

If you have any questions, please call 541.573.8087. Transportation can be provided on request. A calendar with all dates of will be available.

Family and Child Services

*Our Creator,
Bless us well today. Bring us good thoughts; bless our hearts. What we look toward is good. Our children will be blessed by these things.*

The former Social Service program has been split into two programs and the responsibilities were divided among two directors. The prevention component is directed by Mr. Jeremy Thomas and the ICWA (adjudication) is under my purview.

Ni Manemetuupe, Pisa ni sutehai yaa tabino. Pisa ni tsasunamikena; pisa ni piwesutenhai. Pisaau puninookewe. Ni tuame pisa maiku sutehaino. Mau.

You're probably wondering what this means? In layman's terms I work closely with the DHS and CPS case managers,

In laymen's terms my work consists of working with the DOJ, Child abuse hotline, local DHS and DA's team to curtail child abuse and neglect. A large part of my day is spent overseeing ICWA case management, Tu-Wa-Kil-nobi, DV Program, monitoring at-risk families, serving elder's w/ disabilities, emergency child placement and foster home placement. Next week article will cover "What is ICWA"

HOT TOPIC: ELDER'S WITH DISABILITIES

Signs and warnings of Elder Abuse

Victims of elder abuse may be slow to recognize and report the abuse. Too often, victims suffer in silence. For that reason, it is important recognize the following warning signs.

Types of Abuse Include:

- Financial exploitation
- Neglect
- Verbal abuse
- Physical abuse
- Abandonment
- Sexual abuse
- Seclusion and restraint

Warning Signs of Elder Abuse

- Any unexplained injury, or an injury that doesn't with given explanation.
- Situations where the elder is not given the opportunity to speak for himself or herself without the caregiver present
- Elders who become extremely withdrawn

- non-communicative or non-responsive
- Unusual depression
- Frequent arguments between the caregiver and elderly person
- Sudden changes in financial situations
- Unpaid bill, overdue rent, utility shut-off notices

◆ Elders breakfast will be cancelled for the Month of October 2019 in order to realign with 25 CFR part 20 Financial Assistance and Social Service Program. Family and Child Services has been addressing all deficiencies; so that all programs to meet BIA regulations and criteria as specified in Social Services Block Grant Narratives and Code of Federal Regulations. ◆

NOTICE

Food Distribution Program

On August 22 and 23, 2019 the Food and Nutrition (FNS) Western Regional Office conducted a Management Evaluation (ME) of the Tribe's Food Distribution Program. The review covered the Federal Fiscal Years 2018 and 2019. This is the first site visit the Tribe has had since the program has been in place. The FNS staff found some deficiencies in the program that must be corrected immediately.

In September 2019 every household currently participating in the Food Commodity Program must come in and fill out a new application for the Food Distribution Program and be certified. Please bring in your proof of income (pay stubs, award letters, etc.). Verification of income is required for all household members.

If you have any questions, please call Randall Lewis at 573-8023 or Twila Teeman at 573-8049. Your cooperation with the above request is appreciated. We are striving to improve the Food Distribution Program and get in compliance with the Federal Rules and Regulations.
